SUNDAY SET ASIDE TO HONOR MOTHERS

WHOLE NATION UNITED FOR OB-SERVANCE OF MOTHERS'
DAY ON MAY 10.

PAY SPECIAL HOMAGE

Appropriate Services Will Be Held In Janesville Churches.—Family
Reunions Planned.

Sunday, May 10, will be Mothers' Day. All over the land special reverence and homage will be paid to mothers. "The real mothers of the nation," in Janesville, as in every other city, there will be special services in the churches, there will be special home gatherings and family reunions.
There will be special attentions to mother in a thousand and one ways
by which appreciation can be shown.

The following appeal for the hearty and universal observance of Mothers' Day was written especially for the Gazette. May every reader of the Gazette enter into the spirit which it carries:

"The real mothers of the nation are the mothers. Mothers not only carry their own burdens, but they lighten the burdens of the home and other members of the family. They are the home-makers. The quiet, burdensome hours of home-making are not hours of idleness, but hours in which the mothers are working their lives for the good of the nation. Mothers are quietly and surely building a nation.

It is to the mothers of a nation that the heart of a nation owes its foundation of compassion. It is through the mothers of a nation that the pulse of human tenderness is quickened. In the motherhood of a nation is nourished that river of love whose streams make glad and mark
well the destinies of a land.

"Then let us honor and reverence motherhood. Let us build protecting walls around the mothers of our homes. Most civilized countries by law have established the maximum amount of time a woman shall be required to work in industry (i. e. work in wages) as 60 hours per week, yet in many American homes mothers are forced to work day after day, all day long, yes, and often far into the night, if in so doing the convenience of the family shall be better served.

"By law and custom in many European countries, a woman engaged in industry shall not return to work until one month after childbirth. The mother at work in many American homes is compelled to resume her accustomed labors a few days after childbirth.

"Industry and commerce at least admit of woman's industrial right of existence, admits of her right to live as well as to labor. Industry at least admits the fact of woman's individual right to have her labor measured, known, valued, priced and paid for.
While in many the home mother's labor is lost sight of, her work in the home not being so much as credited as being work. No one moment of the day or night, year in and year out,
are some mothers free from the toil and responsibility for the success or failure of her own, her children's and her husband's life.

"In view of these startling facts, is it not reasonable to assume that the increasing number of married women employed in American industry is a direct result of the conditions against the mother? Is it not the result of the unbearable conditions imposed upon her by the thoughtless fathers, husbands and children of the home?

"By divine appointment mothers are burden bearers. But in that appointment God never intended that mother should become the slave in carrying upon her God-blessed shoulders her wonderful gifts.

"Take away the mothers of America and you have destroyed a nation.
Fathers, mothers and children, speaking for tens of thousands of voices hushed by an early call to death because of the unjust imposition of the added burdens of the home; in the shadow of these graves may the better part of your humanity appeal to you, that the mothers of our homes be exempt in the future from the added burdens which have been imposed upon them in the past.

"The mother's instinct is the star that guides her and the divinely appointed life and leads her to the cradle where an infant is born.

"Next Sabbath, May 10, is the day when churches of America will honor mothers. Go to some church, hear a white carnation in memory of her to whom you owe so much of life and strength for its conflict."

BOYS TO SPEND DAY AT MADISON SCHOOL

Youths Who Complete Corn Contest
Requirements Will Visit Agricultural College.

All the boys entered in the Janesville Commercial club's corn contest who complete the work as required by the director, will enjoy a special excursion trip to Madison the next day to spend a day at the state college of agriculture. This treat will be accorded to every lad who completes the work regarding corn. Whether he wins a prize or not, it will be a trip worth while and will be something for every contestant to look forward to.

Many of the boys who have entered the contest are preparing their appropos for planting and within a few days the early plantings will be made.
The records indicate that best results are usually obtained where corn is planted by the middle of May so it would be well for boys who have not yet entered the contest to get in line
at once so that there will be time for adequate preparation.

Prof. West has already brought up the matter of seed which should be carefully tested in order to get the best which will insure high germination. Of course you will have to go over the plot after the corn is up and plant in those hills where the young shoots are weak or missing entirely, but the smaller number of second plantings the better.

Special Train: The Knights of Pythias from Delavan chartered a special train over the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road to attend the district convention held at Brodhead. The Beloit delegation, headed to Janesville on a special interurban car and went to Brodhead on the passenger train. The special left Janesville at 4:45 and returned at midnight.

MASHER GIVEN TERM BY JUDGE MAXFIELD AFTER COURT TRIAL

Chicago Youth Calls Married Woman
"A Baby" and Is Given Ten Days in Jail.

Mashers Beware! Ten days in jail was given to Thomas O'Rourke of Chicago by Judge Maxfield this morning in the municipal court for addressing a woman "Hello Baby" at the corner of Academy and Wall streets last evening.

Complaint was made to Chief Champion by the woman, who is married, and O'Rourke was arrested and brought into court this morning on the charge of intoxication and for insulting a woman.

When arraigned O'Rourke entered a plea of not guilty and Judge Maxfield, not wishing to waste time on the case, held his trial immediately.
Chief Champion was placed on the stand and testified that the young man was under the influence of liquor and that the woman and her husband complained to him. The result was that O'Rourke was "nabbed" before he had gone half a block.

According to O'Rourke it was not his fault to call a working girl "Baby," but Judge Maxfield ruled different and informed the defendant that employment girls were even entitled to more protection than those more fortunate in society. The man tried to explain that he thought he knew the woman and Judge Maxfield asked him in scorn if her name was "Baby," and if that was the correct title to all his lady friends.

"A ten day sentence should convince you of the proper address to make to women, for this mashing has got to be stopped," remarked Judge Maxfield as he imposed the sentence. O'Rourke under the commitment of work under the commitment law, his wages going to his mother in Chicago.

Minor Is Drunk.
George Hosenauer, residing on Academy street, who gave his age as being nineteen years of age, pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness.

When asked by Judge Maxfield where and how he obtained the liquor, the youth told the court he lied to the bartender at the Frank Kane saloon, telling him he was of legal age. Ten days for telling a falsehood to the supremacist was the sentence. Days for drunkenness was the sentence delivered to Hosenauer. The youth had had previous police trouble and he obtain liquor should be punished.

Milton Man Fined.
John Pfeiffer of Milton was given a fine of twenty-five dollars of twenty-five days on his plea of guilty to the charge of drunkenness. Pfeiffer told the court he had come to Janesville to consult the district attorney and after transacting his legal business finally landed into the municipal court. He was instructed by Judge Maxfield to work out his term.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Susane Lavmon.
Mrs. Susane Young Rasey Lavmon, passed away in Milwaukee recently.
She was an old settler of Rock county. She was born January 20, 1846. Three children survive. They are A. L. Rasey, Milwaukee; Mrs.
A. H. Rasey, Galeville, Wis., and Mrs. G. W. Rasey, Beloit. The remains will be brought to Mrs. Smith, La Prairie road, one mile south of the town line for services. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

William Edward Brown.
William Edward, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Brown, of South Bend, Indiana, passed away May 6th, at his parents' home. The cause of his death was pneumonia possibly. The funeral will be held in his city tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, at the St. Patrick's church, and burial will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Brown are well known in this city, having moved to South Bend from Janesville about a year ago.

Double Work.
"Why is it that a man won't wash
his face with a washcloth?" demanded Mrs. Wombat. "Men haven't time for all that foolishness," said Mr. Wombat. "First you have to wash your face and then you have to wash the washcloth."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Excusable Delay.
Twenty-five minutes after her divorce from one husband a Wellburg
(W. Va.) woman was married to her second. The delay was caused by the need to have a marriage license properly filled out.—Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

EXTRA CLAIM FILED AGAINST THE CITY BY GOULD COMPANY

Builders of Milwaukee Street Bridge
Seek $3,810 for Additional Work
Caused by Old Stone Piers.

Contending that extra labor and expense were entailed in the building of the new concrete bridge across Rock River at Milwaukee street, because of two submerged stone piers, which were not shown on the blue prints furnished by the city, had to be removed, the Gould Construction Company of Davenport, Iowa, filed a claim for $3,810.51, covering the extra cost, at the city clerk's office today.

The claim was filed through the company's attorney, Thomas S. Nolan.
According to the plans and specifications furnished to bidders at the time of letting the contract, the river bottom at the site of the bridge was given as entirely as gravel. No mention was made, nor did the blue prints show the existence of two submerged piers of quarry stone, one at the east side of the river and the other in the middle, which the construction company claim held up the work, requiring additional time and labor. The company also avers that the city has knowledge and record of the existence of these stone piers and that custom and practice would prescribe a record of them in the plans and specifications furnished to the contractor. Since they did not appear on the plans the company contends that the city is liable for the extra expense.

The claim as filed today carries the following items:
Cost of excavation and coffer-
dam, east pier ..... $1,293.04
Cost of excavation and coffer-
dam, middle pier ..... 917.55
Cost of two piers ..... $2,210.59
Cost should have been: two piers built under normal conditions ..... $1,249.45
Cost of sand pile under normal
conditions ..... 158.24
Extra cost of night work ..... 562.53
Extra cost of work done after December 1 ..... 1,840.27

Total extra cost ..... $3,810.51
The company contends that the extra time and labor which was required by these unknown obstacles were responsible for not completing the bridge within the contract time.
As a result the work was carried on at increased expense, due to the winter weather. All of these facts are fully set forth in the claim, together with the cost schedules showing the number of days' work on each pier
and the labor cost for each day.

MISS PEARL MARSDEN ENTERED IN CONTEST

Janesville Girl, Attending Beloit College, Will Compete in Annual Contest of Latin League.

Among the contestants competing in the second annual contest of the Wisconsin state Latin League, to be held at Grafton Hall in Fond du Lac,
May 10-11, is Miss Pearl C.
Marsden of this city. The league is Beloit College. The league is being conducted by the Latin department of the Wisconsin university. Besides Miss Marsden, Miss Alice Lowry, of Oak Park, Illinois, will represent the Beloit institution.

This intercollegiate event is the only one in the state, in which the women of the colleges are given a chance to participate, and it is being watched with interest. Every college in the state will enter competitors.

Tomato Juice for Stains.
Tomato juice is said to be successful in many cases in removing inkstains from white materials, such as handkerchiefs, muslin frills, etc. It must, however, be done as soon as possible after the mishap occurred. A clean piece of blotting paper should be laid under the stain, and a slice of raw, ripe tomato rubbed over the surface, fresh pieces of blotting paper being substituted until the ink spot has vanished.

Motive Power in Norway.
The greatest single factor in the possible industrial development of Norway lies undoubtedly in its cheap and abundant hydroelectric power.
The country having practically no coal resources, the Norwegian industries are coming to depend more and more upon the utilization of waterfalls as a primary motive power source.

church, at which session sixty delegates were present. Following a song service led by Rev. G. E.
Parsons, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, a devotional ser-

church in this city gave the address of welcome followed by an address
by Rev. C. A. O'Neill, Emerald Grove, on "The Power of Love in the Sunday School."

The illustrated lecture on "How We Got Our Bible," by Prof. J. P.
Deane, Beloit College, was post-which to show the slides. Those interested are invited to this session tonight, which commences at seven-thirty, with a song service.

In place of the lecture, Dr. R. B.
Shepard of Chicago, Educational Secretary of the Cook County Sunday School, gave an address on "The Obligation of the Church to Provide Religious Instruction for all Population in the County, in Precisely the Same Way as the Public Schools Provide Secular Instruction." Dr.
Shepard said, "The need for moral and religious instruction is urgent and must come at once." It was a strong talk based upon sound facts, of the need of the Sunday school in the home.

Sport Snap Shots

The Yank fans are up on their toes over the playing of Frank Chance's team this season. The Yanks pushed the Athletics off their feet and have indicated a determination to treat all others in the same way. Chance has got together a demerol team and the Yank fans are not slow in showing their appreciation.

Thus, erstwhile Philadelphia and Boston outfielder, seems to have taken a liking to the pitching he gets in the A. A. He is averaging something in the neighborhood of .500 and winning quite a few games with the stick for Kansas City.

Franklin Baker's failure to show his real form this far this year is hampering the progress of the Athletics no little. Several times he has whiffed with men on bases, as things unheard of in his past performances. Until the home-run kid hits his strike the Athletics need not hope to do the same.

Connie Mack's big success, according to recent magazine articles and exchanges, is found in the fact that the most of his best players have never in their lives known the taste of rum. It has always been pretty generally thought that booze in large quantities is apt to destroy one's best faculties and undermine the constitution. This is probably as true of ball players as any one else, if not more so. Very few, people know, however, that Connie Mack could put a complete team on the field at any time—including most of his stars—not one of whom had ever tasted booze. This is of particular interest, too, since quite a few of the Athletics are college men.

Clark Griffith says that Baldemero Acosta, his Cuban recruit, is a most promising youngster and that he should be in the regular line-up by next season.

Young Lustig, a New York right-weight, is coming to be regarded very favorably in those parts. He recently fought a good draw with Johnny Dundee.

John Ward, part owner of the Brooklyn Feds, hikes over to the Brooklyn Dodgers' park whenever he gets a chance after business hours. Merely a matter of old habit, perhaps.

It must distress the lawyers unspeakably—all this suing and one thing another in baseball. The lawyers probably feel that they dislike the Feds intensely. At present there is something like $150,000 being asked for in different damage suits that the Feds and organized baseball are waging against one another.

ILLINOIS ATHLETES MEET BADGER TEAMS

Wisconsin To Meet Illinois in Track, Baseball and Golf in Meet Saturday Afternoon.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., May 8.—University of Illinois athletes will invade Madison on Saturday afternoon, when three teams will be sent up from Urbana to meet the Badgers in track, baseball and golf.
Although the Illinois teams are strong in all three branches of sport, the Badgers are hoping to win at least two and possibly three of the contests and should favorable weather prevail it is expected that the largest crowd of the year will attend. By virtue of winning the indoor conference track meet at Evanston, Ill., in March, the Illinois team at the present time ranks as a favorite with the critics, but the members of the Wisconsin team are predicting that the meet will be hard-fought throughout.

Illinois defeated Purdue university by a one-sided score of 95 to 22 last Saturday at the same time that the Badgers were trimming up the Ohio state team.

The visitors are strong in the dashes with Hohlman, who won the dash against Purdue last week in the fast time of 19.1-5. Murray, who tied the world's record in the indoor conference meet and Hammitt, winner of the century in the intercollegiate last year. Against these men will be pitted Knudsen, the star Badger flyer, who Coach Jones concedes an even chance in both the hundred and the two-hundred.

Illinois will probably take the quarter with Captain R. L. Sanders, who ran the event in 1:49.3-5 last Saturday. He is without doubt the best middle distance runner in the country, having defeated Half of Michigan in the last half of the two-mile relay at the Pennsylvania games in the fast time of 1:57.4-5. Wisconsin should have two places with Schley and Williams. Bresnahan and Merrill are conceded an even chance of winning against the Illinois team, consisting of Henderson, Tapping and Rapp, while Harvey, the Badger star distance man, is expected to take the measure of the Illinois entrants in the mile. After his showing of a week ago when he did the distance in 9:51 Perry looks like an even favorite against Mason, the Illinois runner who won the event in the indoor conference meet.

The Badgers are strongly equipped in the weights with Van Gent, Keeler, Butler and Buck, while they are also strong in the high jump with Captain Bob Vahl. The broad jump ought to go to the University of Illinois with Nevins and Husted who took second and third in the conference a year ago at St. Louis. The vault should bring out some interesting competition between Kerr of Wisconsin and Schobinger of Illinois. These men tied for first place in the indoor meet with a vault of 12 feet.

Wisconsin has a good chance of making the hurdles with Christman in the high hurdle event and Bassett in the 220 low hurdles.

Illinois has not met with defeat at the hands of any of the conference colleges this year and is tied with Chicago for first place in the intercollegiate race for the championship. The Badgers on the other hand have lost only one game and the battle promises to be an interesting one. It is more than likely that Coach Lewis will send Neuschwander, his star left-hander, against the visitors in the attempt to haul them out of first place. The Badgers showed great improvement in the game against Indiana last week and are now going in great style.

Golfers Working Hard.
The Wisconsin golfers have been making some excellent cards at the Maple Golf links this far and are expected to defeat their rivals from Illinois. They have a big advantage in being acquainted with the course.

Northwestern Game Friday.
After being completely reorganized after the shake-up that came as a result of the playing of two ineligible men, the Northwestern baseball team will come to Madison on Friday for a game with Wisconsin. The Methodists are now working under the direction of Fred Murphy, the former Yale star, and expected to have a strong line-up to present against Wisconsin. Noon, who held Indiana to five scattered hits, will undoubtedly be sent against the purple.

MILTON SLUGGERS TRIM ST. JOHN'S

College Baseball Nine Easily Down Cadets in One-Sided Contest—Score Is 13 to 6.

The St. John's Military Academy baseball nine were no match for the Milton College team yesterday afternoon at Milton, the latter men slugging the ball for a 13 to 6 victory. The game started close, with Cranford on the firing line for Milton. One hit was made off his delivery in the first inning, after which he tightened up, and retired in the fifth inning, after holding the cadets helplessly. Other pitchers were tried out by Milton, Lush showing up badly, while Van Horn delivered a fairly good brand of hurling in the inning

These three big league pitchers are among those who denied opponents safeties in one or more games while working in minor leagues.

he was stationed in the box. The cadets scored five of their six runs in the ninth inning. The score by innings follows:
Milton 0 2 0 1 3 2 0 5 13
Cadets 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 5-6

Accept Challenge: The "Fourth Ward Stars" baseball team of this city, have accepted the challenge sent them by the "Anderson Lumberjacks" of Jefferson, Wis., the game to be played at some date to be decided by the teams.

Eccentric Inn Names.

We are losing most of our eccentric inn names, but in Germany they are adding to them. Berlin now boasts the "Comfortable Chicken," "Cold Frog," "Stiff Dog," "Thirsty Pelican," "Dirty Parlor," "Musical Cats," "Boxers' Den," and "Lame Louse." Leipzig has "The Old Straw Bag," Stadtohen an "Open Bungalow," and the vicinity of many a cemetery in the Fatherland is graced by a "Last Tear."—London Chronicle.

Painless Death.

On one occasion a well-known public man described the act of dying as "a great adventure that must be much more interesting than setting out for the north pole." While few will agree with him, it is a great thing to know that science has robbed death of its terrors, and has taught us that no matter how much a dying person may appear to be suffering, he or she, immediately before death, can feel no pain whatever.

the famous None Such Bros. Circus, that made Janesville famous in the past. It is going to be a genuine affair this year, no imitation, bigger, grander, more elaborate than ever. The start has been made early enough and the success of the undertaking is practically assured. It is some years since Janesville celebrated and now is the chance for a grand display of talent that has been waiting for just such an opportunity to exhibit itself. The fame of Janesville's celebrations have come from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts and despite the counter attraction of a war with Mexico, Janesville will hold the center of stage on July 4th in the year of our Lord 1914.

THE MERGER.

With the merging of the Chicago Inter Ocean and the Chicago Record Herald another of the historic Chicago daily's goes out of existence. The new paper, to be known as the Record Herald-Inter Ocean, has the unique distinction of being the survivor of the old Chicago Herald founded by John R. Walsh, The Times founded by Wilbur F. Storey, the Record founded by Victor Lawson and the Inter Ocean, started by Charles A. Dana. All of these papers have played an important part in the history of Chicago and the new combination, under the management of James Keeley, for many years head of the Chicago Tribune, will be watched with interest.

MOTHERS' DAY.

Sunday is Mothers' Day all over the country. The churches are making special reference to the event and in every city in the United States the day will be fittingly observed. It is a tribute to Motherhood and it is to be hoped that even the busy household will pause to observe the event properly.

Sad to say neither Col. Roosevelt or Col. Bryan could get into the uniforms they wore in 1898. However, more can be made if need be, and it would be a fine example for the youth of the country if these two men should volunteer and be sent where the bullets are thickest.

Funston is in command at Vera Cruz and if there is not something doing down there very shortly, he will see that something does happen. There is one thing Funston does not like, and that is "watching and waiting" for something to come along.

Governor Colquitt of Texas has withdrawn the Texas state troops from the border line. Who is sitting on Colquitt now?

Meanwhile a lot of men have been put at work making ammunition for the summer target practice.

Ulster has lost the services of its publicity agent. Perhaps he went down to Mexico.

Uncle Sam has muzzled his dogs of war as a precaution against dog days.

On The Spur of The Moment

Appearances. The gun that isn't loaded is the one that does the harm. The mule that looks the sleepest at kicking can't be beat. The gal that looks the homeliest kin keep house like a charmer. The steak that looks the tenderest is always hard to eat.

The man that talks the slickest is the slowest to deliver. The man who doesn't talk at all is right there with the rooster. The man who talks philanthropy is not the cheerful giver. The man who boasts of bravery is quickest to the woods.

The loudest prayin' deacon is the poorest one to trust. The softest talkin' married folks are quickest to divorce. The fastest talkin' friends are the quickest to turn their backs. The smallest lookin' copper is the bravest on the force.

The fellow with the silk hat hasn't got the biggest pile. The steadiest of housemaids ain't the fairest fer to see. Don't bank upon a feller who has always got a smile. Appearances ain't always what they're cracked out to be.

Uncle Aahner. The only time a feller wants to eat asparagus is when it costs so much that he can't afford it. The frog leg business will soon be on the jump if spring keeps on opening up.

About the easiest way I know of to waste time is to start an argument with some feller about his religion. Every time one of the tires on Deacon Stubbs' second-hand outmobile blows out there is loud and long applause from the gang in front of the grocery store. The deacon has been charging 11 per cent on his mortgages around here for some time and the public never had a chance to get even with him until he bought his car.

There doesn't seem to be anything in this world that can make a Mexican happy. Deacon Stubbs sold his outmobile to buy his wife a new spring hat. Hank Tuunns says he doesn't believe in education. Hank also eats with his knife.

One of the poorest things to jump at is a conclusion. A feller who votes a straight party ticket every time, no matter who is on it, may be a patriot, but he is a damned poor one. It don't matter much what car you buy. You don't have to have more than fifteen minutes before it is two years behind a style.

I would never go into a business deal with a feller who curls his mustache or uses perfume on his hair. The most important actin' feller in this world is the telegraph operator in a small village.

Some culprits came along and stole Constable Ezra Hand's badge while he was asleep in front of the saloon the other day.

Trouble. You do not have to hurry down the highways just to meet. Just stand right still and it will come to you.

If you are wise and have a chance, you'll beat it. As soon as old man Gloom comes into view.

It isn't very difficult to find a batch of worry. Because it's never hidden out of sight.

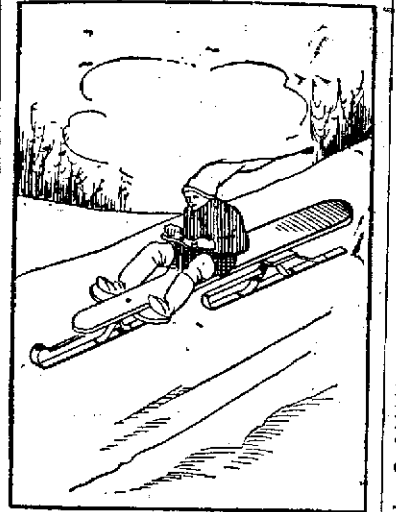

When a man is looking for it he can grab it in a hurry. If he hasn't sense enough to fly his kite.

The Retort Courteous. Hogan, a friend of Hogan's had been away and arrived in town on the day of the funeral. With his satchel in his hand, he passed Hogan's house, just as the pallbearers were carrying the casket out to the hearse. Hogan had been a very large man and the pallbearers were straining every muscle. Casey stood agape, but finally approached one of the pallbearers: "Who's in there?" he demanded, pointing to the casket. "Hogan," panted the pallbearer. "What, is Hogan dead?" The pallbearer turned upon Casey disgustedly and said: "For the love of Mike, you don't think we are just rehearsing this, do you."

SLED WITH THREE RUNNERS

Capable of Greater Speed and Steers Easier Than the Old Style.

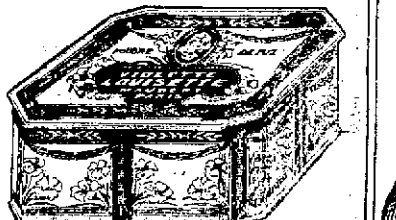

Something new in the line of coasting sleds is covered in a recent invention which has for its recommendation the claim that it is swifter than the old-time sleds and is capable of much speed, with the expenditure of less energy, and the vehicle is said to re-

SINGLE RUNNER IN FRONT.

Spied quicker to the steering wheel. This will be apparent when one observes the construction of the front runner, which is quite long, presenting as much bearing surface as the ordinary pair of runners would; but the single long runner offers much less resistance to the forward movement of the sled.

Representative James W. Bryan of Washington has introduced a bill in congress which provides that the United States shall buy the Rockefeller interests in Colorado mines. The bill provides for an eight-hour day and gives the miners better working conditions than they now enjoy.

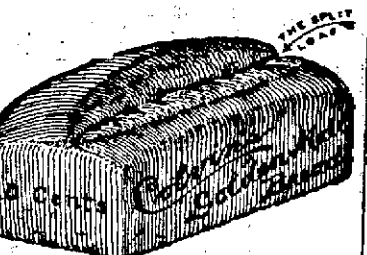

Nothing Short of Calamity. Holding a glass of clear honey in his right hand, father observed impressively: "It cost the little bees many a weary trip to fill this with sweetness from the flowers." Little Laura, who had been listening closely, exclaimed, with great earnestness: "Wouldn't it have been too bad if one of them had dropped the glass?"

ADJOURN RAU TRIAL UNTIL MAY THE 18TH

Attorney Petitions to Adjourn Suit of Katherine Myers vs. P. L. Myers Until 28th.

By the consent of the attorneys, District Attorney Dunwiddie and Louis Avery, defending attorneys, the trial of Fred Rau, charged on a state warrant with selling liquor without a license, was adjourned until May eighteenth. The case was set for this morning in the municipal court before a six men jury, but the attorneys petitioned to adjourn the case, both sides wishing more time to prepare their cases. District Attorney Dunwiddie stated that he had several more witnesses to subpoena before the state's evidence would be complete.

Attorney in the case of Katherine Myers vs. Peter L. Myers asked for adjournment of the civil action until May 28th, which was granted by Judge Macfield.

My office will be closed at noon Saturdays from May 9th to September 26th.

Dealing With Those Who Say "Not Now"

By REV. HOWARD W. POPE
Superintendent of Men
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—For he saith, behold, now is the day of salvation. II Cor. 6:2.

Let us consider first the cause and then the cure. Perhaps there is some habit which must be abandoned, or some companion who must be dropped, or some unpleasant duty which must be done. It may be only the natural inertia of the soul which shrinks from grappling with a subject so serious, but more likely there is some secret sin which the man is unwilling to abandon. The real cause is that the man is not willing to surrender his will to God. He wants his own way, and though he flatters himself that he will yield to God by and by, he is not willing to do it now.

Whatever the cause, the cure is always the same—God's Word. Ask the man by whom he expects to be saved, if he is ever saved. He will answer, "God alone can save me." Emphasize that thought by having him read aloud John 6:44, "No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me, draw him." Call his attention to

God's Command.

Acts 17:30, God "now commandeth all men everywhere to repent." After he has read the verse ask him if God has a right to make such a command. Ask him if he, who is dependent on God for salvation, has the audacity to refuse to obey this plain command. Show him the consequences of such a refusal. Proverbs 1:24, 25, 26, 28, "Because I have called, and ye refused, I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me."

II Cor. 6:2, "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." Show him that God's time is the best time, and the only sure time. There is no certainty that he will be accepted tomorrow, but there is a positive promise for today. Make him realize that the habit of putting off duty will grow constantly stronger, and that ten years from now he will be less disposed to repent than he is today. Show him that there must be some moment of definite surrender to God, and that no lapse of time will make that surrender any easier. Indeed, it will grow harder as the years pass by, and if he puts it off, the chances are that he will never do it.

Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of tomorrow, for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." Show him that in putting off repentance he is reckoning upon the continuance of life which is entirely uncertain. Remember that Satan is persuading him in his subtle way to wait a little longer. The old serpent does not dare suggest that he never repent, or even that he put it off a long time, but he cunningly says, "Not now."

Occasionally a soul may be won by taking the devil's side of the argument, and pleading his cause so boldly that the absurdity of his reasoning is apparent. A friend of mine at a Northfield conference was asked to speak to a young man with whom many had labored in vain. Meeting him alone one day, he said to him, "These people in the hotel are bothering you a good deal on the subject of religion, are they not?" The man blushed and admitted that he had been somewhat annoyed. Then followed a conversation something like this:

"You don't need to give any thought to this matter for a long time yet. You had better put it off for at least a couple of years, don't you think?"

"I am not sure it would be well to put it off so long as that." "Why not?" "Because I might not live two years." "That is true. Well, put it off one year. That is safe enough, is it not?" "No, I don't suppose it is entirely safe, for I might die in one year." "Sure enough, you might. Well, put it off six months. Are you willing to do that?" The young man hesitated. "Call it three months. Will you promise not to think of it for three months?" "I wouldn't like to promise that." "Why not?" "Because I might die in three months." "Will you promise not to think of it for a week? That is safe enough, isn't it?" "No one can be sure of a week, I suppose." "You are certainly sure of one day, aren't you?" "No, not positively sure of even one day." "Well," said my friend, "if you are not sure of even a single day, hadn't you better give your heart to the Lord now?" And he did, right then and there.

Let's All Repeat Fervently.

One of the most concise and meaty prayers ever offered was that of an earnest New England deacon. "Lord, give us grace to know Thy will and grit to do it."

Millions of Wood Screws Used.

It has been estimated that 4,768,000,000 wood screws are used in the United States each year.

ARE PASSING MANY SIGNIFICANT BILLS IN SCHOOL SENATE

Prof. J. T. Shear's Civic Class Organize Into Upper House, After Being Representatives.

Some three weeks ago Prof. J. T. Shear of the high school faculty realized that to instruct his senior civics class most successfully, in the ways of handling bills, mainly through the house and the senate, would be to organize the body into the houses themselves, and let them derive what they can from such a practice.

In organizing the house of representatives, each member of the class selected a state, noting where he wished to shew as from. In choosing the party, the republicans won, and controlled the house. Louis Hayes was chosen speaker of the house, and the fight began.

A case was brought up the first day, to impeach Representatives Barnes and Greene, charged with bribery and Attorney Hemming prosecuted the case, lawyer Hold carrying the defensive arguments. The men were convicted by the house and Speaker Hayes reprimanded them severely.

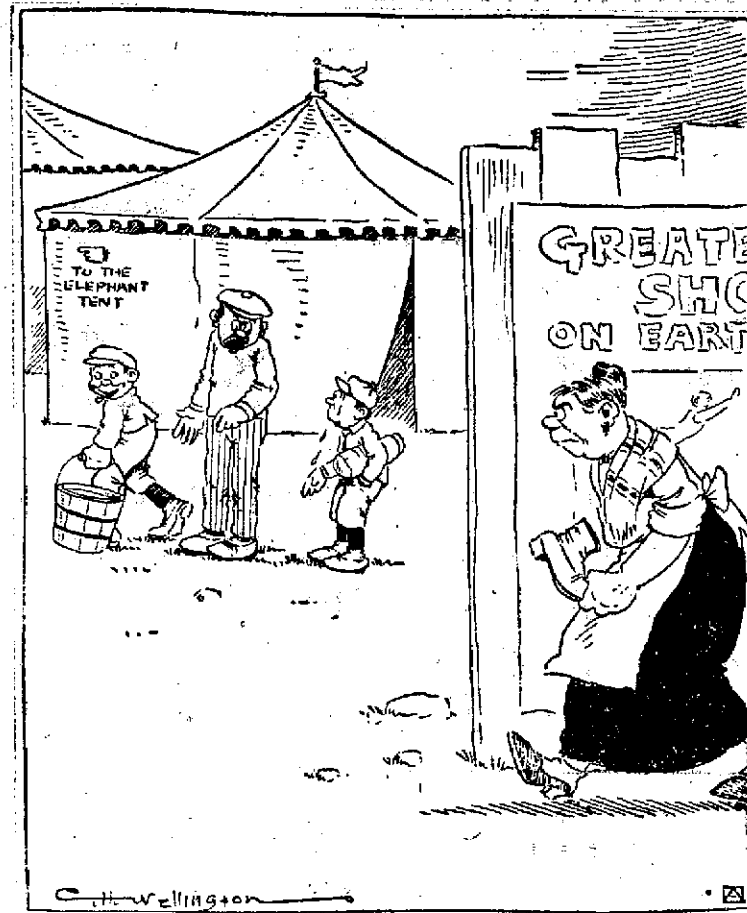

Several bills were brought up from day to day, and thoroughly discussed. Two important measures, namely the amendment to the suffrage bill, calling for nation-wide suffrage, and the bill calling for national prohibition, were argued for several days.

The fact and interesting point is that on most all of the measures, the minority, composed of democrats, managed to squeeze through, by their able addresses, and have many of the measures passed and sent to the upper house. The house was adjourned after three weeks session and beginning this week, the senate was called to order by vice president of the United States, Karl Frick, of Missouri.

The senate took up the bills passed by the lower house and discussed them. In addition the legislative body have introduced new measures, and referred them to proper committees. Freedom of debate has been extensively used by the senators and also much time has been wasted by the men who have had the floor on various occasions, without any just cause. A real senate was being held and is today.

This afternoon the senate debated on a new bill, asking that the United States take into their own hands the telephone and telegraph lines. By a close vote Monday, the measure asking that the United States own and control the railroads, was defeated.

---And the Worst is Yet to Come

Miss Lorene Bowerman is chairman of the ways and means committee. On her committee are two republicans and three democrats.

The bill on the calendar for Monday, calls for the repeal of the income tax, and will be introduced by Republican Senator Louis Hayes of South Carolina. It is expected that the body will act favorably on this measure. The proposed law calling for an appropriation of ten million dollars for the army, passed by the lower house last week, was rejected yesterday by the senate. Vice President Frick of Missouri making an able address in opposition to the appropriation.

The work is being successfully carried on, and the work of the Jansville high school senate will be given as it is conducted.

INTEREST DISPLAYED IN THE BIRD TALK

Mrs. Jessie Braman Daggett to Talk Saturday Afternoon at Congregational Church.

Did you ever realize that the robin, that red breasted little bird had a temper all his own? The robin is like a petulant boy or girl and his song expresses his temper for the moment. He can scold or he can wheedle and his song is sweet or scolding as his mood may be. Mrs. Jessie Braman Daggett, who speaks at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon at two thirty under the auspices of the Welfare committee of the Civic League, is responsible for this assertion about our feathered visitor. Mrs. Daggett has discovered in bird songs many strange things. She demonstrates that the motifs for the worlds greatest music comes directly from the birds. The songs of the various little feathered visitors have given the world its one great charm, that of music. It is an interesting talk that Mrs. Daggett gives. A bird talk. To the bird world she is what Ernest Seton Thompson is to the animal kingdom. She knows the birds, she knows their songs. Her little message to the public is interposed with whistling the bird notes to the accompaniment of the piano. She demonstrates her theory that the songsters of the feathered world bring to us a message that we can better understand by study. The school children of the city, where bird life is taught, are much interested in the lecture and many are planning to attend. It is not for children alone but for grown ups as well and everywhere.

Mrs. Daggett has spoken. she has delighted her audiences.

Love must be blind, or at any rate Cupid doesn't always shoot straight. The setting hen may be a loafer, but she delivers the goods.

PUPILS INTERESTED IN SCHOOL GARDEN

Scholars in District No. 4, Town of Newark, Send Letters to Superintendent Antisdal.

Pupils in the rural schools of Rock county are taking an active interest in agricultural work. This fact was emphatically brought to the attention of Superintendent O. D. Antisdal when he received as many as eight letters from children enrolled in District No. 4, town of Newark, of which Miss Ethel Langbein of Beloit is the teacher. The letters tell of the work done on the school garden and indicate an unusual amount of industry in this direction. One of the boys writes very nicely of the efforts spent on the garden plot in the following:

Dear Sir:—
I thought you would like to know what we are doing at our school, so I will tell you about our garden. On April 7 we measured off a piece of ground twelve feet square. Then we spaded up the garden that day, too. We had rakes and hoes to work with.

We dug out the stones, raked the garden and then we borrowed a wheelbarrow and hauled in some black dirt on it and raked it over again. We could not plant the next day because it was snowing, so we waited until April 13 and then we planted it.

We divided the garden into four squares and then divided each square into four beds. In the beds we planted radishes, lettuce, onion and flower seeds. The chickens began scratching out the seeds, so we put brush on the garden to keep them out. May first we took off the brush and weeded the garden. Radishes are one to two inches high. Onions are five to eight inches high. Lettuce is one inch high.

Each of the children brought five cents to get a rope for a swing. The boys have a swing and the girls have one. The little children have one, so now we have three swings. We have good times at our school and I like to go. But school will soon be out, as we have just two more weeks of school.

From Your Friend,

ARTHUR KLAUSNER.

Each letter is accompanied by a map of the garden plot showing the location of the various kinds of seeds planted. The letters show that the garden was under the most favorable circumstance, owing to the fact that the ground available is particularly sandy. Consequently stones had to be dug out and black dirt hauled in.

Teachers in all the rural schools of the county are advised to plant as laboratory work in agriculture. The majority carry out the suggestions, but not always with the success which attend the experiment in the town of Newark school.

PLUMBER'S ENDORSE STATE'S NEW CODE

Requirements as Explained by Inspector From Madison Meet Approval at Meeting Thursday.

Southern Wisconsin plumbers expressed a general satisfaction over the new plumbing code passed by the state board of health when the new laws were fully explained by Frank R. King, state plumbing inspector, at the public meeting yesterday afternoon at the city hall.

The new code regulates all plumbing in and three feet outside of all buildings. The code book gives a complete list of requirements on all branches of plumbing and illustrations of the correct method of work. According to Inspector King the profession would be standardized under the new laws in the state if the plumbers were consistent in observing the rules specified in the code. Correct ventilation was given as a main feature of the new regulations whereby a system of drainage is required to keep air within the pipes in circulation, removing dangerous, foul air. Charts show state requirements of the number of fixtures, drainpipes, and other technical points so that the plumber is able to follow the rules without trouble.

Mr. King emphasized the need of co-operation by the plumbers for observance of the code and placed the question of obeying them as a necessity to their benefit, as the state had made preparations to administer the law. Cities will have local inspectors who will pass inspection on every piece of work, and if unsatisfactory the plumber will be forced to do the work in accordance with the law and will have to stand the expense.

F. E. Baker of Chicago, representing the Clow Company, gave an instructive talk on "overhead" expense. The need of bulletin service about plumbers the lowest market price to be figured in the overhead expense was discussed. The time, labor and interest on capital to be counted as overhead expense, that which is not listed on the bill, is correctly estimated as being sixteen per cent, declared Mr. Baker. C. H. Meyers, new president of the Southern Wisconsin Plumbers' Benevolent and Sanitary Club, presided at the meeting.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Editor of the Gazette: I take up the other objection made against the purchase of the water plant, as per promise in yesterday's article, I want to make plain to you a more specific way how the purchase can be made without actually loading the city for the full sum of the purchase price.

According to the annual report of the company there are outstanding bonds to the amount of $185,000 and which draw interest at the rate of 5 per cent. These bonds do not mature until 1927. Consequently the actual amount of bonds which the city need to issue is only the difference between the amount of these bonds and the purchase price, or, in actual figures, $11,260. Please bear this in mind as it is important for us all to know that as a matter of fact there will be no wholesale bonding of the city for the full amount of $226,700. Please bear also in mind that neither the old bonds nor the new issue will add a single penny upon the tax bills of the people and will be taken care of by the earnings of the plant. It is well to know this as people are rightly afraid of any action which would increase their already high taxes.

There It Is!

Chemical analysis of an ordinary cup of coffee shows that it contains about 2½ grains of the drug caffeine.

By actual test the U. S. Government demonstrated that 5 grains of caffeine (the amount in 2 cups of coffee) were sufficient to kill a rabbit.

Of course, human beings are stronger than rabbits, but there are few people who can drink coffee regularly without sooner or later feeling the effects of caffeine poisoning, commonly shown in headache, indigestion, biliousness, sleeplessness, heart agitation and other ills.

Thousands of people, tired of coffee troubles, have found relief by changing to

TERRITORY DENIED TO BELL COMPANY

Railroad Commission Refuses to Allow Company to Install 'Phones in Town of Rock.

By a ruling of the Wisconsin railroad commission today the Wisconsin telephone company was denied its application to extend the town of Rock for the installation of telephones on the south side of the town. This territory is now covered by the Rock County Telephone company, which objects to the extension by the rival concern. Several hearings were held at the city hall during the past winter at which the pros and cons of the matter were thoroughly threshed out.

The railroad commission today ordered the Northwestern road to improve the grade crossing one mile south of Oakes in Trempealeau county. New culverts are to be put in and the road graded so as to be safe for the traveling public.

The commission granted permission to the Ryan Farmers' Telephone company of Keweenaw to issue $150 stock for new improvements; to the Ripon United Telephone company of Ripon to issue $10,000 capital stock.

Permission was granted to the Mark River Electric Light and Power company of Rome to issue $2,000 capital stock for new improvements, and to the Colman Power and Light company of Colman to issue $5,000 in stock for the same purpose.

TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES.

Mothers' meetings were conducted on Friday in Florence Nelson's school and on Wednesday in the school taught by Edna Lounis. At both meetings several mothers were present.

Superintendent Antisdal and Principal Louth conducted evening meetings on Thursday at Hanover and on Friday at Johnston. The respective schools are taught by Nellie Roberts and Nellie McCreary. Spelling contests were held in both places, and much interest was manifested.

The training school students went on an excursion Friday afternoon for the purpose of studying birds and they were successful in finding many to observe by the use of the field glass.

The seniors have selected and ordered their commencement invitations. The graduating exercises occur Thursday forenoon, June 11, in Christ church hall.

There are several localities in Rock county where consolidation is not only practicable, but highly desirable. The farmers need not be afraid of this plan. There is no danger in it, and the children will be very much benefited by attending a larger school having better teachers and better equipment.

Miss Marie Dabson, a member of the graduating class, will assist the county superintendent during the summer.

The principal of the training school will be unable to hold county meetings other than those already scheduled, owing to the pressure of the closing work at the school.

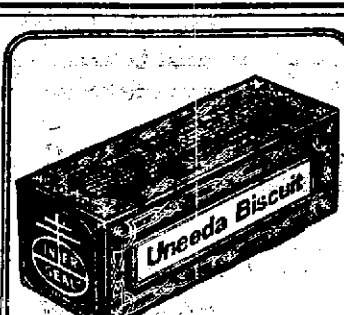

The new county board of education is ready to back up Superintendent Antisdal in his efforts to improve the schools of Rock county. Better results are sure to come.

The prospect for a first class summer school with a good attendance are very gratifying. Several have already signified their intention of taking up the work, aside from beginners.

Over four hundred catalogs have been sent out to present and intending teachers throughout the county. The work in rural mechanics ends this week and the subject of school law begins next week.

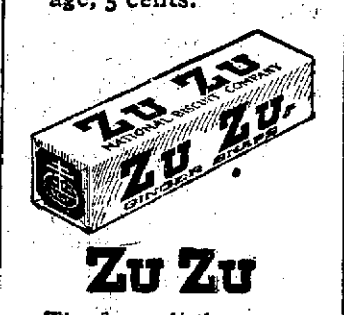

How many of your pupils will do the thing right without any suggestion from you? Take a small man smaller than a rectangular piece of paper, six inches by six inches, and a pair of scissors. Ask them to cut from it one square and two triangles, and have no paper left. After you have given them the directions keep still—if you can.

In all memory drill work in arithmetic the teacher must not wait for the answers. The result must come quickly and accurately. Be not too patient.

All Clogged Up? Here's Quick Relief

A Simple Remedy to Correct Constipation Before it Becomes Chronic.

MR. H. W. FENSTERMAKER.

Very few people go through life without some time or other being troubled with constipation. Thousands injure themselves by the use of strong cathartics, salts, mineral waters, pills and similar things. They have temporary relief in some cases, it is true, but the good effect is soon lost, and the more one takes of them the less effective they become.

A physic or purgative is seldom necessary, and much better and more permanent results can be obtained by using a scientific remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not irritate, but it is a high-sounding name, but is what it is represented to be, a mild laxative medicine. It is so mild that thousands of mothers give it to their infants, and yet it is so compounded, and contains such definite ingredients that it will have equally good effect when used by a person suffering from the worst chronic constipation, of Syrup Pepsin. It is an older people who have suffered for years of nothing to benefit them until they took Syrup Pepsin.

It is a fact that millions of families have Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house, homes like those of Mr. H. W. Fenstermaker, Siegrist, Pa. He says he has had wonderful results from the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, that, in fact, he is glad to recommend it. A special value of this grand laxative tonic is that it is suited to the needs of every member of the family. It is pleasant-tasting, mild and non-gripping. Calks harsh physics, it works gradually and in a very brief time the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to do their work naturally again; when all medical aids can be dispensed with.

You can obtain a bottle at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is usually bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

There will be Mothers' Day services at the Congregational church in the morning and the M. E. church in the evening. The Simonson families entertained relatives from Sharon Sunday.

Dr. E. E. Campbell has been appointed health officer.

F. H. Gifford and wife were in Janesville yesterday.

Prof. Barbour attended a meeting of college professors at Madison Wednesday.

Miss Royce of Whitewater is visiting Mrs. Cleland.

Misses Marguerite and Marion Ingham were at Fox Lake, yesterday, to attend the wedding of their brother, H. G. Ingham to Miss Gamble of that place.

H. Pieters has rented the city bakery and takes possession next week.

"Clean up" days were generally observed in the village and much improvement made in the appearance of backyards.

Banker B. H. Wells has been a victim of mumps this week.

History From An Every Day Life.

This little sketch is past history. It is an unwritten law in the newspaper world that past history shall be blue-penciled at the desk. It NEVER goes down the spout.

As this concerns children it may escape the rapier-like point of the Editor's pencil.

Four little girls, with the aid of their Mother prepared Easter baskets containing colored eggs. The children colored the eggs, bought the baskets; did all the work of preparation. They planned to sell them and with the money purchase a pair of rabbits that they had long desired.

The Mother encouraged them in their efforts, as it kept the children busy, and taught them the value of a dollar—its purchasing power.

She ran an ad to the effect that Easter baskets would be delivered at one's door, at a very moderate price. The little girls sold every basket and could have disposed of many more.

This is but another instance of where the want ad page helps us in our everyday life. Do you call on it for aid?

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

EVERY strata of society has its slang. Every class takes up certain words and phrases from time to time and uses them in season and out of season, appropriately and inappropriately, in short mercilessly overworks them until they finally die of exhaustion.

The slang of the less educated class has always been anathema. But is it really any more to be condemned than the slang of the class that ought to know enough to avoid overtaxing unoffending words?

I know a woman of considerable culture, so-called, or perhaps I should say self-called. She can talk vaguely but gracefully about the philosophy of Bergson; she loves to juggle with such names as Nietzsche, Tolstoy, etc.; she belongs to several fashionable women's clubs; she keeps her library table littered with expensive magazines and leather bound copies of books and browning. Now I happened to be with her the other day when a jolly little clerk in a shop said, "I should worry." My companion turned up her aristocratic nose at the sound of this vulgar and worn out phrase. A more pained and disgusted expression I have seldom seen. And yet, would you believe it, I never knew anyone who could overwork and vulgarize an expression as thoroughly as she does. And the mere fact that the original expression is different does not make her any less culpable than the shop girl. Last summer this woman picked up the phrase "I love the boys" and she has used it ever since appropriately and inappropriately with nauseating persistency.

On the lips of this woman and several more of her cut, "I love that" has grown just as tiresome and vulgar as "I should worry," and if you happen to know any woman of this particular type you have probably been bored in the same way.

"Attractive" is another word which this class converted into slang by their abuse of it. A year or two ago everything they saw, did, ate, heard, liked, laughed at, or in any way approved was "attractive." The word was succeeded as dry of individual meaning as a lemon that has been used for a boarding house lemonade.

Slang is often powerful and expressive, or amusing and whimsical. In itself it is not necessarily objectionable. Its offense against the language is that it is taken up by the people who do not think, and used as a crutch for their intelligence.

Instead of expressing their thoughts with words they themselves have chosen, and which therefore have the virtue of individuality, they fall back upon these ready-made expressions. Slang has the same effect upon the vocabulary as pre-digested foods have upon the digestion.

Anyone who takes refuge from the effort of self-expression in some overworked word or formula, however respectable, is just as slangy as the perpetrators of "I should worry."

THE KITCHEN CABINET

It is almost always when things are all blocked up and impossible that a happening comes. If you are sure that you are looking, and ready, that is all you need. God is turning the world around all of the time.

GOOD THINGS TO REMEMBER.

When cracks in a painted floor are to be filled with putty, it is well to paint the cracks before putting in the putty, to make the latter stick.

If an obstinate case of nose bleed, take a strip of white paper, roll into a small ball and place on the gums close under the upper lip. Moisten the paper before placing it, and then press the lip down firmly. The pressure will usually stop the bleeding at once.

Ants will be exterminated if a small amount of tartar emetic is kept near the place where they come in, or around the places they frequent. It is a poison, so should be kept away from children and pets.

A grated Irish potato bandage placed over the eyes at night will cure a simple inflammation.

To keep the corners of rugs down, place a strip of stout cloth and a piece of mending tissue between it and the back of the rug; press with a hot iron. The rug will stay in place if nicely treated.

When there is a hole in the bottom of a slipper which needs early attention, place a piece of the top of a shoe, cut a little larger, in the sole with glue. Wear a piece of paper over the place to keep the stocking from sticking until it gets set.

A little water in the tubs or pails will keep them from falling to pieces. Some kinds of bed spreads make fine wash cloths or may be cut into small square cloths for a lunch table.

A saucer of left-over preserves may be thickened with a little gelatin, a bit of lemon juice added, and whipped cream, and a delicious dessert is the result.

Brooms should be hung or rested on the handles, as standing on the straw spoils the straw.

The onion which is left over from today's dinner may be pressed through a sieve and served in tomorrow's meat sauce.

Tea leaves should be squeezed dry and saved to use on the carpet or rug when sweeping. They not only brighten the carpet and keep the dust down, but make sweeping easier.

Cold boiled or baked fish may be made into a most appetizing salad. Add chopped cabbage, celery or a pickle or two, for something sour. A sour apple finely chopped is an addition.

Women Worth While.

MRS. HOWARD SUTHERLAND.

By Selene Armstrong Harmon.
Mrs. Howard Sutherland of Elkton, Md., is a woman who can play a tennis match, then take a six-mile walk, and later, on an evening's diversion, dance the tango with as much zest as any one of her children. She is the wife of Representative Howard Sutherland, who took his seat in the lower house of congress a few months ago. Ten children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland, of whom six are living. The eldest daughter, Natalie, is a student at Vassar, and Richard, the only son of the house, is attending Yale. The other children are Virginia, Katherine, Margaret and Elizabeth.

"Do I know anything about the new dances?" laughed Mrs. Sutherland when she was asked. "Well, I cannot confess to an ignorance of them. Neither can any other member of the Sutherland family. My husband is as fond of dancing as are their children and recreations as well as into the more serious pursuits of her children."

"Comparatively few of us," she says, "appreciate the full value of outdoor exercise, especially as it relates to women and children. If we spent more time at tennis, basketball and golf instead of in our steam-heated houses, if mothers and their daughters could take a five-mile walk without exhaustion, our whole race would benefit within two generations."

Mrs. Sutherland does her own marketing, and is a practical, efficient housekeeper. She is not particularly interested in politics.

"You ask what I think about the tango, the turkey trot, the fishwalk and all the others. Naturally, I do not consider them undignified, or improper when properly danced, or I would not dance them. There are improper ways of dancing the tango and the two-step. All the new dances may likewise be made improper. On the other hand they may be danced with perfect decorum."

"Now, it seems to me that the wisest mother is she who enters fully into the sports and recreations of her children, and who whole races would benefit within two generations."

and two dinky ribbon ends hanging down behind like David Copperfield and Paul Dombey affected, are the correct things in the hat line for young hopefuls today. Little inverted butterbowl shapes of straw are also good.

It seems hardly fair that Dickens should be given all the credit for these charming styles for children when it is the inimitable illustration of his works, George Cruikshanks, who pictured the Dickens children thus attired. For that matter, Kate Greenaway deserves quite as much credit for all of her dainty pictures of children in their best. Perhaps it is a safer thing to call the new child fashions "character" or "period" suits, as a well known department store one of the first signs of the new styles is doing by way of solving the difficulty of bestowing credit where credit is due.

Another cunning style has the straight knee length pants with a front of white plaque to stimulate a little waistcoat. This model is particularly satisfactory developed in chambray. Even rompers have undergone a complete metamorphosis and in their newest state are little one piece suits, short kimono sleeves, square low neck, and ending in trunk length straight pants instead of the full bloomers of the rompers of yesterday. Nothing cooler or more attractive and comfortable for the wee summer man could be imagined. In striped and checked gingham or chambrays, banded in solid colors, they are too cute for anything except just what they are made for—the partial covering of a pudgy boy.

Cunning washable kid gloves for the kiddies is another innovation bound to bring joy not only to the small man and little woman but to their respected and long suffering parents who must hand out the price of these expensive infantile dress accessories. Of white and chambray toned dooskins they are exactly like mother's washable gloves and can be popped into soapsuds black and small grubby hands can make 'em come out again as immaculate as a brand new pair. Hence a wash in time will save buying a new pair of gloves nine times out of ten.

Of One Mind.
"Foxy Uncle (after leaving the curio shop, showing his nephew the way to buy curios)—"There you are, you see. When you are dealing with people like that just bargain the point a bit, and down comes the price ten shillings." Curio Dealer (to his nephew)—"There you are, my boy. When you're dealing with a man like 'im, and you see as 'ow 'e's going to bargain the point a bit, all you've got to do is to put the price up ten shillings to start with."—Sketch.

A New Method of Baking Cakes

Mrs. Nevada Briggs, the baking expert, says:

"There is just one way to make your cakes rise high and evenly—give them time to rise before a crust is formed and the batter is stiffened by cooking."

"If using a gas, gasoline or oil stove, light your oven when you put the cake in and keep the flame low until the cake has doubled in bulk; then increase the heat until it is evenly browned and will respond to the pressure of the finger. If using a coal or wood range, leave the oven door open until the cake is in; then turn on the drafts and by the time the oven is at baking temperature, the cake will have raised sufficiently."

For rich, moist, feathery cakes Mrs. Briggs always recommends

KC BAKING POWDER

It is double acting and sustains the raise. You can open and close the oven door, turn the tin around in the oven or do anything else necessary, without any danger of making the cake fall.

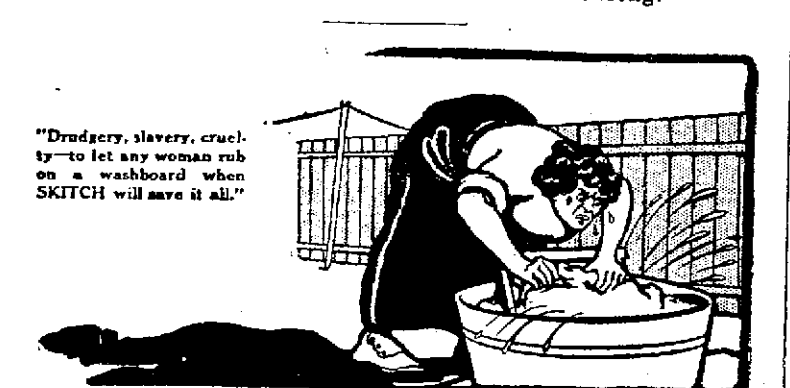

Try your favorite cake next time with K C Baking Powder and see how much higher it will rise. Make it just as you always do, with the same quantity of baking powder. While K C is less expensive than the old fashioned baking powders, it has even greater leavening strength and it is guaranteed pure and healthful.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio. All druggists.

May Help You if Lungs Are Affected

Proper diet, fresh air and temperate habits are helpful to persons suffering from Lung Trouble, but in a great many instances reports show that the addition of a medicine for this affliction has materially helped in bringing about recovery. For more than fifteen years Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, has been giving good results. Read what it did in this case:

Madison Lake, Minn.
"Gentlemen: In December 1906, March, 1909, and September 1909, I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs which compelled my doctor to advise me to go West. In November I started for Denver, Colo. After my arrival I met Michael Brady, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alternative. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alternative for my health."

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be a great remedy for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds, and in upbuilding and restoring the system. ## THE PLACE OF HONEY-MOONS HAROLD MAC GRATH Pictures by C.D. RHODE

"What is the gentleman to you?" she was interrogated.

"Absolutely nothing," contemptuously.

The minister inspected his rings.

"He has annoyed me at various times," continued Nora; "that is all. And his actions on Friday night warrant every suspicion I have entertained against him."

The chief of police turned toward the bandaged chauffeur. "You recognize the gentleman?"

"No, monsieur, I never saw him before. It was an old man who engaged me."

"Go on."

"He said that mademoiselle's old teacher was very ill and asked for assistance. I left mademoiselle at the house and drove away. I was hired from the garage. That is the truth, monsieur."

Nora smiled disbelievingly. Doubtless he had been paid well for that lie.

"And you?" asked the chief of Nora's chauffeur.

"He is certainly the gentleman, monsieur, who attempted to bribe me."

"That is true," said Courtlandt with utmost calmness.

"Mademoiselle, if Monsieur Courtlandt wished, he could accuse you of attempting to shoot him."

"It was an accident. His sudden appearance in my apartment frightened me. Besides, I believe a woman who lives comparatively alone has a legal and moral right to protect herself from such unwarrantable intrusions. I wish him no physical injury, but I am determined to be annoyed by him no longer."

The minister's eyes sought Courtlandt's face obliquely. Strange young man, he thought. From the expression of his face he might have been a spectator rather than the person most vitally concerned in this little scene. And what a pair they made!

"Monsieur Courtlandt, you will give me your word of honor not to annoy mademoiselle again?"

"I promise never to annoy her again."

For the briefest moment the blazing blue eyes clashed with the calm brown ones. The latter were first to deviate from the line. It was not agreeable to look into a pair of eyes burning with the hate of one's self. Perhaps this conflagration was intensified by the placidity of his gaze. If only there had been some sign of anger, of contempt; anything but this incredible tranquility against which she longed to cry out! She was too wrathful to notice the quickening throb of the veins on his temples.

"Mademoiselle, I find no case against Monsieur Courtlandt, unless you wish to appear against him for the forcible entrance to your apartment."

Nora shook her head. The chief of police stroked his mustache to hide the fleeting smile. A peculiar case, the like of which had never before come under his scrutiny! "Circumstantial evidence, we know, points to him; but we have also an alibi which is incontestable. We must look elsewhere for your abductors. Think; have you not some enemy? Is there no one who might wish you worry and inconvenience? Are your associates all loyal to you? Is there any jealousy?"

"No, none at all, monsieur," quickly and decidedly.

"In my opinion, then, the whole affair is a hoax, perpetrated to vex and annoy you. The old man who employed the chauffeur may not have been old. I have looked upon all sides of the affair, and it begins to look like a practical joke, mademoiselle."

"Ah!" angrily. "And am I to have no redress? Think of the misery I have gone through, the suspense! My voice is gone. I shall not be able to sing again for months. Is it your suggestion that I drop the investigation?"

"Yes, mademoiselle, for it does not look as if we could get anywhere with it. If you insist, I will hold Monsieur Courtlandt; but I warn you the magistrate would not hesitate to dismiss the case instantly. Monsieur Courtlandt arrived in Marseilles Thursday morning; he reached Paris Friday morning. Since arriving in Paris he has fully accounted for his time. It is impossible that he could have arranged for the abduction. Still, if you say, I can hold him for entering your apartment."

"That would be but a farce," Nora rose. "Monsieur, permit me to wish you good day. For my part, I shall pursue this matter to the end. I believe this gentleman guilty, and I shall do my best to prove it. I am a woman, and all alone. When a man has powerful friends, it is not difficult to build an alibi."

"That is a reflection upon my word, mademoiselle," quietly interposed the minister.

"Monsieur has been imposed upon," Nora walked to the door.

"Wait a moment, mademoiselle," said the prefect. "Why do you insist upon prosecuting him for something of which he is guiltless, when you could have him held for something of which he is really guilty?"

"The one is trivial; the other is a serious outrage. Good morning." The attendant closed the door behind her.

"A very determined young woman," mused the chief of police.

"Exceedingly," agreed the minister. Courtlandt got up wearily. But the chief motioned him to be reseated.

"I do not say that I dare not pursue my investigations; but now that mademoiselle is safely returned, I prefer not to."

"May I ask who made this request?" asked Courtlandt.

"Request? Yes, monsieur, it was a request not to proceed further."

"From where?"

"From that, you will have to consult the head of the state. I am not at liberty to make the disclosure."

The minister leaned forward eagerly. Then there is a political side to it?

"There would be if everything had not turned out so fortunately."

"I believe I understand now," said Courtlandt, his face hardening. Strange, he had not thought of it before. His skepticism had blinded him to all but one angle. "Your advice to drop the matter is excellent."

The chief of police elevated his brows interrogatively.

"For I presume," continued Courtlandt, rising, "that mademoiselle's abductor is by this time safely across the frontier."

CHAPTER VI.

Battling Jimmie.

There is a heavenly terrace, flanked by marvelous trees. To the left, far down below, is a curving, dark-shaded, turquoise body of water called Lecco; to the right there lies the queen of lakes, the crown of Italy, a corn-dew sapphire known as Como. It is the Place of Honey-moons. Rich lovers come and idle there; and lovers of modest means rush up to it and down from it to catch the next steamer to Menaggio. Eros was not born in Greece; of all barren mountains, unstriving, Hymettus, or Olympus, or whatever they called it in the days of the junketing gods, is complete. No; Venus went a-touring and abode a while upon this same gracious spot, once dear to Phryx the younger.

Seated on one of the rustic benches, his white tennis shoes resting against the lower iron of the railing, a Bavarian dachsel snoozing comfortably across his knees, was a man of fifty. He was broad of shoulder, deep of chest, and clean-shaven. He had laid aside his Panama hat, and his hair, which was clipped closely, and was pleasantly and honorably sprinkled with gray. His face was broad and tanned; the nose was tilted, and the wide mouth was both kindly and humorous. One knew, from the tint of his blue eyes and the quirk of his lips, that when he spoke there would be a bit of brogue. He was James Harrigan, one time celebrated in the ring for his gameness, his squareness, his endurance; "Battling Jimmie" Harrigan, and, when he encountered his first woman, when he retired from the ring, he had to his credit sixty-one battles, of which he had easily won forty. He had been outpointed in some and had broken even in others; but only once

"This is a Grave Accusation to Make."

That was enough. He understood. Youth would be served, and he was no longer young. He had, unlike the many in his peculiar service, lived cleanly and with wisdom and foresight; he had saved both his money and his health. Today he was at peace with the world, with three sound appetites the day and the where-withal to gratify them.

Today "Battling Jimmie" was forgotten by the public, and he was happy in the seclusion of this forgetfulness. A new and strange career had opened up before him; he was the father of the most beautiful prima donna in the operatic world, and, difficult as the task was, he did his best to live up to it. It was hard not to offer to shake hands when he was presented to a princess or a duchess; it was hard to remember when to change the studs in his shirt; and a white cravat was the terror of his nights, for his fingers, broad and stubby and powerful, had not been trained to the delicate task of tying a bowknot. By a judicious blow in that spot where the ribs diverge he could right well tie his adversary into a bowknot, but this string of white lawn was a most damnable thing. Still, the pattering of the two women, their daily concern over his deportment, was bringing him into conformity with social usages. One thing he rebelled against openly, and with such firmness that the women did not press him too strongly for fear of a general revolt. On no occasion, however impressive, would he wear a silk hat. Christmas and birthdays invariably called forth the gift of a silk hat, for the women trusted that they could overcome resistance by persistence. He never said anything, but it was noticed that the hotel porter, or the gardener, or whatever masculine head (save his own) was available, came forth resplendent on feast days and Sundays.

Leaning back in an iron chair, with his shoulders resting against the oak, was the Barone, altogether a different type. He was frowning over the pages of Bagot's Italian Lakes, and he wasn't making much headway. He was Italian to the core, for all that he aped the English style and manner. He could speak the tongue with fluency, but he stumbled and faltered miserably over the Piccadilly type. His clothes had the sordidly cut, and his mustache, erstwhile waxed and militant, was crumpled at the corners, thoroughly insular. He was thirty, and undeniably handsome. Near the fountain, on the green,

FEARFUL HUMOR COVERED FACE—RESINOL CURED

Paterson, N. J., Dec. 9, 1913: "About a year ago my face began to crack and get scaly in blotches. It soon got worse and my face was all spotted and rough, and it itched me very much at night, and caused me no end of discomfort. After a month or so, pimples and blackheads began to show, first in small numbers and then gradually covering my entire face. It was awful. The pimples were sore and the rash was itchy, and my face had a most unsightly appearance. I could get no relief. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment caused me instant relief. By the time another jar of Resinol Ointment and cake of Resinol Soap were gone, I can truthfully say that it was a complete cure. My face had assumed its former color and looks, due to Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. They are, I think, the best for any skin trouble." (Signed) Robert Troyano, 289 E. 21st Street. was a third man. He was in the act of folding up an easel and a camp stool.

From a window in the villa came a voice; only a lit of a melody, no words—half a dozen bars from Martha; but every delightful note went deep into the three masculine hearts. Harrigan smiled and patted the dog. The Italian scowled at the vegetable garden directly below. The artist scowled at the Italian.

"Fritz, Fritz, here, Fritz!"

The dog struggled in Harrigan's hands and tore himself loose. He went clattering over the path toward the villa and disappeared into the doorway. Nothing could keep him when that voice called. He was as ardent a lover as any, and far more favored.

"Oh, you funny little dog! You merry little dachsel! Fritz, mustn't; let go!" Silence.

The artist knew that she was cuddling the puppy to her heart, and his own grew twisted. He stooped over his materials again and tied the box to the easel and the stool, and shifted them under his arm.

"I'll be up after dinner, Mr. Harrigan," he said.

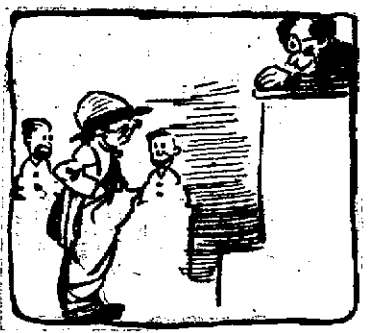

"All right, Abbott," Harrigan waved his hand pleasantly. He was becoming so used to the unvarying statement that Abbott would be up after dinner, that his reply was by now purely mechanical. "She's getting her voice back all right; eh?"

"Beautifully! But I really don't think she ought to sing at the Haines' villa, Sunday."

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee. Smith Drug Co., Druggists, Janesville, Wis.
